

WHAT'S OCCURRING JUNE – Barclay House, Trawlers on the Quay, The Plough...

Plough'ing into the summer season!

We are delighted to report that our latest venture, The Plough in Duloe, is now open for business and serving the people of Duloe and beyond. Having opened the doors on June 1st, Franki and her team have been overwhelmed by the support from local residents and travellers alike – we thank you for this support and wish to see you for many years to come! You can expect to sample local Cornish ales and cider at the bar, along with a full wine list and the good quality Cornish inspired dishes, served under the winning management of Head Chef Benjamin Palmer of Barclay House. We welcome you to join us if you haven't already, open every day of the week; food is served from 6pm to 9pm except on Sunday where we serve lunch from 12noon onwards. See our website or make a booking at www.ploughduloe.co.uk, 01503 262556.

Cruise and Dine...As if Trawlers on the Quay wasn't close enough to the water! We have decided to offer the award winning food of Barclay House and Trawlers on the Quay, together with a cruise along the East Looe river. Supplied with a handmade locally sourced picnic lunch, guests are welcomed aboard the open air day boat 'Moonraker' of Looe in order to cruise the Looe river. Once you arrive back at the quayside you have the afternoon to make your way to Barclay House where your table awaits for dinner, chosen from our Table D'hote four course menu. Call us to arrange your exclusive dine and cruise with Barclay House, 01503 262929. www.barclayhouse.co.uk.

Celebrate Fathers Day! Only a week away, on Sunday 19th June, this year we are offering a special lunch menu at The Plough. Join us for lunch, and enjoy three courses from our specially designed menu featuring the same great local produce you would experience at both Barclay House and Trawlers on the Quay, and along with a hand chosen father's day gift for dad! – All for just £18 per person... call us to book 01503 262556.

Dates for the Diary...

Festival by the Sea (9th, 10th July) Our annual Looe 'festival by the sea' is held on Saturday 9th and Sunday 10th July 2011, and following tradition, Barclay House and Trawlers on the Quay will be in full support. Serving tasty local dishes from right off the East Looe harbour – this is definitely a weekend to visit Looe!

Making Waves (23rd, 24th, 25th Sept) A first for Looe, a weekend long music festival to rival any other!

Plans are in full swing for Looe's first music festival Making Waves. The event will take place on September 23, 24 and 25 and is designed to give a boost to the late summer tourism season with a wide spectrum of music, dance and entertainment. The steering group organising the event has announced new major sponsors, including Proper Cornish, Skinner's Brewery and Celtic Link, alongside the majority of local businesses. Entertainment will take place in the streets each day from 10am to about 7pm, when it will then move into the pubs and restaurants. Check our website to keep updated on this exciting local event!! www.barclayhouse.co.uk.

Lastly, don't forget, it's not too late to book a last minute stay at Barclay House with savings on late availability in our 5 star self catering cottages and Taste of the West foodie breaks in our hotel rooms available throughout June! Check our website for the latest offers or call on 01503 262929, we look forward to welcoming you soon!
